

Foreclosure Defense

If you and your family have been struggling financially and fear that the only solution left is to give in to foreclosure, call us today! The foreclosure defense attorneys at our firm are exceptionally skilled and have extensive training in the law on how to fight against foreclosure. Do not give up hope simply because you are unsure where to turn! At our office, we have helped many of Florida residents save their homes and find a means to fight off foreclosure, and we may be able to help you too!

Your legal representative will be capable of advising you on the proper steps to sufficiently build a defense in order to save your home. We can also offer you helpful guidance regarding potential alternatives or options, such as a loan modification, or short sale to foreclosure.

TIPS:

- The Property Owner has 20 days to file a written response to a Mortgage Foreclosure Complaint or may waive rights to defend.

Landlord Tenant Law

A contract or rental agreement should be drafted by an experienced real estate attorney.

TIPS:

- Do not sign the contract if you do not understand all the terms.
- A Landlord must give a Tenant a written notice before starting the eviction process.
- A Tenant must give a Landlord a written notice of non compliance before withhold rent.

Our goal is to create opportunities for you to prevail in your dispute, and to provide you with the value that results from having an efficient, seamlessly integrated team for addressing any case or controversy on which we are engaged.
